

AUSTIN REID

Trend Fashions and an eye catching range of pullovers, slacks, socks, underwear, ties and belts.

There will be available for hire an excellent selection of modern dress suits, with a great choice of wing-collared shirts and bow ties to match.

And Austin will be able to put his own football experience to good use in the sportswear department, where he will have a good range of equipment from Connollys of Galway, a firm that is emerging rapidly in the sportswear business.

Austin, who also intends to have some eye-catching window displays.

Helping him in the shop will be his brother Damien, and while it is a big step for him to take, he is delighted that his family are fully behind him in this venture.

Austin will be stocking a superb selection of casual wear by Wrangler, Levi, Dingos and all leading brand names in the latest fashion styles and colours.

He will also have co-ordinating sweat shirts,

He will be only too happy to quote for your team strips and have them made to order, and can supply all types of jerseys, even for rugby, hurleys, helmets etc.

Dundalk is about to get an excellent menswear shop, and as a young man taking the chance on going out on his own, Austin Reid must be wished every success in this new venture.

pullovers, cardigans, blouson jackets, aptly with a distinctive autumn feel.

In formal wear Austin will have suites by Crescent, Agency International, Pointers International, and other leading names to give you something discerning for that special occasion.

Couple with this will be overcoats and shirts by
