EDUCO™

The ULTIMATE ADVENTURE

This is a unique opportunity to go on the ultimate adventure. Like all great adventures, it involves exploring, journeying into the unknown in search of a fabled treasure.

For this adventure of a lifetime I need men and women who are open-minded and fearless, who are prepared to explore new frontiers for high rewards. Yes, the rewards are high and if we succeed, like in all good adventure stories, they will enable you to live happily ever after on the proceeds.

Now I must warn you that many people will try and dissuade you from this quest, telling you it is too dangerous, the treasure doesn't exist, it's all nonsense, you are just being misled. Yet, I as the guide assure you I have led many people through these uncharted areas to the treasure. And they say not only was it the greatest adventure of their lives but as a result of what they have gained they have lived happily ever after. But not everyone will succeed and that is the risk you take. I must also tell you that once you see what is at stake and get a glimpse of the treasure you will find yourself trying again and again in the hope that you will succeed.

The Map

Like all hidden treasure, there is a map which I would now like to show you. The map is you. The hidden treasure is an area within you from which you can extract everything you need to live gloriously, joyously and abundantly. Whatever you want you can draw forth. This is absolutely true.

It is your greatest asset yet few people know of it. This whole process I have named Educo. The word 'educate' comes from the Latin word 'educare' meaning to educate, to draw out from within, to call forth or to bring out what is dormant, hidden or unexpressed. Can we agree that we are all composed of body, mind and spirit? Well, I believe I have found a way to uncover that spirit so you can experience it and put it to work for you. Yes, I know, it sounds unbelievable but look at it continued on page 2...
