The Ultimate Adventure

Have you ever thought how wonderful it would be if magic really existed and you were a magician... You have the magic within you to make your 'every wish' come true.

this way - people explore outer space, explore the depths of the ocean, explore the far corners of the earth yet very few people have ever truly explored themselves. Is it because we are afraid of ourselves - in particular of our own life source - Spirit? But surely you as an open-minded adventurer aren't content to live and die with a large part of "All that stands between you and the life of your dreams is a small switch in your way of thinking" yourself unexplored, uncharted and its vast potential unrealised?

Rewards

Let me assure you again that for those who succeed the rewards are truly great. They fall into two main categories:

Firstly, where you journey into the unknown you until you reach your source. This is like going from a cold barren land to a paradise. Then you can lay claim to this new dimension of your Self. From then on it's yours, you can go there any time you like - it's yours to enjoy.

Your spirit, life source, true nature, Self - whatever name you want to put on it, is like the most sensitive, joyous, alive substance you can possibly imagine. It is a perfect, loving, intelligent energy and life source. When you actually come in contact with it you experience all of these in their purest form.

This is how people who succeeded have described coming in contact with this extra dimension of themselves: They began to feel it as energy which seems to circulate throughout their body getting stronger and stronger often in waves of both energy and light. With the eyes closed this can be seen as a brightness or white light which may become brighter and brighter until it is dazzling. The person will experience a sense of wellbeing which progresses into happiness - even to euphoria.

All the while the person's awareness is increasing. This is easily understood as the spirit is actually the most sensitive, alive part of the body, your life and energy source. You feel, you experience with that life source. So understandably when you journey into that area your capacity to experience becomes dramatically heightened. You may then experience pure being, pure awareness.

Now in this state of euphoria most people will also experience pure, unconditional love, pure perfection, pure life, pure energy. In the process they begin to uncover the intelligence that is common to us all. Most people

"There is a source within you from which you can extract everything you need to live gloriously, joyously and abundantly" report being themselves for the first time, no longer feeling something is missing. Instead they feel complete. They often talk of a oneness between themselves, life, God - a feeling of being one with everything.

Treasure House

The second category you may find even more exciting. Now you can harness your source and put it to work for you. You can mine it. I am sure you have heard of the tale of Aladdin and his magical lamp where when he rubbed the lamp the genie appeared to grant his wishes. Incredible as it may sound, your spirit

"This is the very secret of success, with which success in any area is certain" actually has such power. In many ways it is rather like the most sensitive of photographic plates and if the image is impressed upon it it forms a picture.

Your thoughts, requests, prayers are the image and if they are impressed upon your Spirit then they will be granted. I urge you to lay hold of this wonderful, magical, life-transforming source. Then you can draw out everything you need for the life of your dreams from your treasure house within.

There have been many books written about this process, often in a veiled way - for example, those on positive thinking, belief, faith healing, the power of your subconscious mind, prayer. Of course it is easy to write these types of books and live in California but I would like to point out to you as your prospective guide that I live in Ireland and I claim to be responsible for more life transformations, healings, requests granted and success stories than anyone else you know. If you doubt it just read the letters in this paper and bear in mind that they are only the tip of the iceberg. It's a lot of people in the course of a year in a country the size of Ireland. They are true stories from real people and can be checked out. My job is to guide as many of you as possible to your source, to show you how to lay claim to it and then the mechanics of mining.

"Learn the mechanics of successful prayer and positive thinking"

Well, you've heard my story, seen the map, you know the rewards and now it's decision time - are you in or out? If you were ever to take a chance this is the time. You have very little to lose and so much to gain. So what's it to be?

Tony Quinn.

Some of the areas we will be exploring...

in the forthcoming seminar this October at the R.D.S.

The Key:

The key opens the treasure chest. Gaining that key is all that stands between you and the life of your dreams. The amazing truth is that it's just a small switch in your way of thinking. Learn how to think properly. With the right mental attitude all the rest is not only simple, it's effortless.

Turn the key and the magic begins...

Success:

The very secret of success with which success in any area is certain. Once you have grasped the principle involved you will see that every successful person has been using it either purposely or unconsciously. In fact, the degree to which they used it is the very measure of their success.

Prayer and

Positive Thinking:

As you may know, one of the main areas of my work is where people send me requests to work on using prayer and positive thinking. Why? Because I get results. Let me show you and train you in the mechanics - the exact process I use myself.

Healing:

Having trained so many healing therapists I can assure you that everyone can heal. Let me show you how easy it is. Maybe you are in need of healing - if so, let me train you in the right mental attitude in which healing occurs.

Health:

Let me show you unique ways to control and improve your health. I believe I have discovered the cause of most sickness. When you hear it I think you will be convinced. In turn, this reveals THE way to health.

Relaxation/Stress Management:

Let me teach you how to relax, not only physically, but more important, mentally. I have spent a great deal of my life searching for the best ways to dissolve stress, tension, worries, problems, negative thoughts etc. and take people to their deepest levels of relaxation. My job is to make everyone in the world aware of what's waiting to be uncovered. Come along, see and experience for yourself.

Magic:

Have you ever thought how wonderful it would be if magic really existed and you were a magician? Then, just by taking thought you could have the life of your dreams. Through the process of Educo I believe I can offer you the nearest thing to magic for it can put into your hands a power which to my knowledge is unlimited. Even as you read this, that power lies dormant inside you. From this power issues life. When you draw it out, you can actually feel it flow from you. I will be demonstrating this to you as follows:-

Demonstrations

Working with a small group of people on stage, taken from those who have successfully made the switch, I will ask each person in turn to relax. Then I will put my hands on them and flow this power. Generally they experience it as a perfect, loving, joyous, intelligent energy which makes them feel euphoric, better than ever before in their life etc.

Then I will demonstrate how this power can be drawn out from them and how requests made to it are granted instantly. I will have them draw it out themselves and make requests to it. If we have done our work properly it will obey them. From then on they will have this life-transforming power working for them.

More words can't begin to do Educo justice - it has to be seen and/or experienced.
